The post included a photo of you, your first name, and a short account of a date. No contact information, workplace, or additional identifying detail beyond what you supplied was included in the post or its comments.

RESEARCHER'S NOTE

The post went up on July 29 and the last comment was added on August 2. We found nothing else about you in the group, and nothing on the Tea app or elsewhere on the open web.

SECTION 02

What we searched

Tea app — Searched by name, photo, and phone/dating-app handles provided. — No matching post

AWDTSG group — Searched the main Charlotte group. — 1 match found

Image search — Reverse image search run against the photos provided. — No further reuse

Before you do anything

Don't respond. Don't try to join the group. Don't contact anyone about it.

Every one of these is a common first instinct, and every one of them tends to make the situation worse rather than better.
